MAKING HIS PATHS STRAIGHT

LEVELING THE FIELDS

Isn't it amazing, for me anyways, that every time I read the Bible, God reveals a piece of his plan, a part of the puzzle of his amazing mysteries in life, that not only shows his plans for my life, but also brings a peace and joy with knowing that everything works for the Glory of God!!!

This morning, after watching our online church service, I went onto my back porch, sat in the sun admiring my vegetables I'm growing, and began to read the book of Luke. I've had it on my spirit for a few weeks now that I need to read Luke. So today, I began that journey. As reading, I come upon Chapter 3, verses 4 through 6, and just like a movie after you see the plot twist and you begin to put the pieces of the puzzle together, it happened, a beautiful revelation from God, allowing me to have more peace than I've ever had as I see His plan in action in all of the "chaos" of the world today.

Last night I was speaking to my brother in Christ Charles Dymond (who is also a Christian Artist I record), and we were talking about this whole "stay at home" order, and some of the conspiracies that are unraveling behind what the media is telling the people. Recently I have seen articles from media overseas where in September of this year, 2020, the Pope of the Catholic religion is calling a meeting for all religions to come together and to sign a document declaring all religions to become One World Religion.... Now what that entails, I'm not sure, but God revealed something in His word to me today, and I will get to that shortly.

Another "conspiracy" that is being spoke about out in the open on the American media is the call for a one world currency. I've seen articles where the Pope has also called for an equal allowance of income to everyone in the world to bring equality. Now, for someone who wants to be rich, this would be a scary thing, because if this became the case, we would have no control over what we are able to make as far as money goes. But, for a follower of Christ, such as myself, I have no anxiety, no stress, no worry or no fear of any of the things that are being spoken of or planned by the elite, aka the principals and the powers that be of this world. I told Dymond, "Bro, even if they did make a one world currency, and only allotted us a certain amount of money, as long as my family is able to eat, and we are able to be together and serve God, I don't need anything more than that!!!" He agreed, and I know we both agree, that no matter what, God will provide for us!

Now, for the revelation this morning, or what I would say the Juicy stuff lol. As I'm reading Luke chapter 3, and read through verses 4-6, it hits me, and hits me hard! GOD IS LEVELING THE FIELD!!!

Luke 3:4-6 "as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying:

“The voice of one crying in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way of the Lord; Make His paths straight. Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill brought low; The crooked places shall be made straight and the rough ways smooth; And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.’ ”

Read it a few times, and see if you notice what I noticed..

Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill brought low...

I want you to imagine that line, visibly imagine, every valley being filled until made level, and every mountain made low until made level..... GOD IS LEVELING THE FIELD! He is preparing the way of the Messiah’s return making his path Straight!!!! All of this that is happening in the world today, it may seem that it’s chaos, and confusing, and sometimes scary, but what I see is that all of the earth and everything in it is all part of God’s creation, and ultimately all will be for the Glory of God!

I feel that God is leveling the field, making the path straight for the return of Christ so that when He does return, it is prepared, the world is prepared and ready so that every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ (Yeshua Hamashiach) is Lord of All!!!

So what do we do from here, this obviously is a small piece of the puzzle of God’s amazing mysteries in life. Well as we continue to read in Luke, John the Immerser, or John the Baptist, tells those who ask him what must they do, he tells them

Luke 3:11-14 "He who has two tunics, let him give to him who has none. And he who has food, let him do likewise."

Then tax collectors came to him to be immersed and said to him, "Teacher, what must we do?" He said to them, "Collect no more than what is appointed you."

Then the soldiers likewise demanded of him, "And what must we do?" He said to them, "Do no violence to anyone nor accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages."

Read that a few times, and as you read it, think about today's world. How far has our "culture" fallen from these principles? How many of us, middle class to the rich, have more than enough clothing, and more than enough food, that we definitely could spare to those who have close to nothing at all? How many of us have over charged for a job, or not worked honestly, to make a profit? How many of our people have been wrongfully accused in the court of law, just because a lawyer is playing his game to win, even when he knows that who he is prosecuting is innocent, just so that he may win in order to make a larger profit?

God is reordering through the chaos, and I believe there will be a revival during this time. There will be those who try to fear monger others to come to God, by trying to scare everyone to salvation, but I don't think that will be necessary. I believe that God's plan will unravel, and as those who become afraid and confused, and unsure of what to do, soon will seek the hand of God, and will see that those who are children of God are at peace and provided for, and they will long for that peace. Our God is a loving God, and yes, there is a wrath of God, but that wrath will be for the unrighteous who try to keep us out of the hands of God, that wrath is for the enemy, Lucifer, and for his works and workers of evil.

I encourage you to read those passages that I have posted here in this passage a few more times, and I encourage you to take it to heart, and to re-evaluate yourself, and realign yourself so that you may follow the words of John in preparing the way of the Lord. Making the path straight. Give anything that is holding you back from that straight and narrow path and surrender it all to God! Whether it's greed, lust, pride, business, hatred, unforgiveness or fear, or anything that is keeping you from the love that God is offering you through Jesus Christ, Yeshua Hamashiach. Surrender today, and receive that love and peace, and allow God to reveal his plan for you, so that you too may live in the will of God, and the fruits of the Holy Spirit may live and dwell in you as you dwell in them with God!
